Short Description

The brown jasper Our Fathers go nicely with the brown tiger eye in this unique, one-of-a-kind rosary. The red spacers give it just a little more color, and serve as a contrast to the blue center.

Description

Tiger eye has always been one of my favorite stones. My own father introduced me to it when I was 10 and he had bought me a lapidary for Christmas, along with a box of bulk stones. But he bought one or two stones not in the bulk set--one of which was tiger eye.
